The Society of Mayflower Descendants in the District of Columbia

Establishment

The Society of Mayflower Descendants in the District of Columbia was organized April 28, 1898, with twenty-two charter members, under a charter granted by the General Society March 22, 1898. The initiative in its formation was taken by Mr. William Lowrey Marsh and he has very properly been recognized as its founder, as it was through him, with twenty-one other charter members, that the Society was permanently established. Mr. Marsh was its first governor and served three terms, from 1898 to 1901.

Growth of the Society

It was not anticipated that the Society would exceed fifty members, at least for several years, and its rapid growth has therefore been a most gratifying surprise. From 1898 to 1920 the membership has increased from twenty-two to three hundred and fifty-four. The location of the Society at the capital city of the nation has been an important factor in its constant growth and has enabled it to reach persons in the South who are eligible to membership but have no state societies of their own. Those who have thus proven their eligibility are among the most enthusiastic members. The Society has taken high rank among the State Societies for effective work in advancing the objects of the entire organization.

Membership

The Society has furnished to the General Society two governors-general, Thomas Snell Hopkins and Major General Leonard Wood, and in its membership have been enrolled a President of the United States, William Howard Taft; an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, Henry Billings Brown; the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, Seth Shepard; Major General Adolphus Washington Greeley, the famous explorer; General Fred Dent Grant, son of President U.S. Grant. Members of the United States Senate, the House of Representatives, officers of high rank in the Army and Navy, and men prominent in professional and business life have been included in its distinguished membership.

It is of interest here to recall that five Presidents of the United States have been of Pilgrim ancestry; John Adams and John Quincy Adams, descendants of John Alden; Zachary Taylor, a descendant of Isaac Allerton; Ulysses Simpson Grant, a descendant of Richard Warren; and William Howard Taft, a descendant of Francis Cooke.

Library

Mr. A. A. Aspinwall has been the Historian of the Society since its organization and has served it with marked ability and devotion. An annual appropriation of fifty dollars has been placed at his disposal for the purchase of books for a library and as a result he now has in his custody three hundred and twenty-four volumes besides twenty-seven pamphlets. These consist chiefly of family genealogies, town and local histories and published vital statistics.

The gavel used by the Governor was made from a piece of oak which was once a part of the old manor house occupied by Elder Brewster. The wood was obtained by Mr. William Wallace Case, a charter member of the Society, while on a visit to Scrooby in 1899 and by him presented to the Society.

The painting, by B. F. Gribble, famous English Marine Artist, portrays the arrival of the first contingent of our American Destroyers at Queenstown, May 4th. 1917. The English people were so impressed by the appearance of our Destroyers and their purpose, that instinctively their minds reverted to the time nearly three hundred years before, when the Mayflower with its small company of people set out for unknown shores. The picture is now owned by our Government and hangs in the office of the Secretary of the Navy.
